

I commend you on the work you are doing to stop the needless suffering of innocent animals from the deadly effects of chemical testing. I completely support the proposal to completely eliminate animal testing with in vitro cell cultures. I think more people in the medical profession need to join in on the campaign to end unnecessary animal testing. Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,
Sheryl L. Francisco